Dear Bob:

I had not heard of your move to "God's country" until  so informed me last week when he was here in Washington. Since the Pacific Northwest is my home territory I am sure you must be enjoying it there. I expect that Tom has already told you of our impending recruiting visit to the campus on October 23, and I am delighted that you will be there at that time. Once more the need for first class recruits remains undiminished on the old ball team, and I very much hope you can steer some good prospects our way. Fortunately the restrictions on describing our work have been substantially relaxed in the last couple of years so the odds have improved on stimulating the interest of competent students.

Both Tom and I are looking forward with pleasure to our visit. Until then, all your good friends here join with me in sending every good wish

Sincerely,
